PROFILE

Computer Science Engineer working as a Tech Lead on GenAI and agentic AI systems in the insurance domain. Experienced in designing and delivering production multi-agent systems end-to-end, from architecture through hands-on development, while also owning business stakeholder relationships and developer onboarding. Solid background in cloud architecture, backend engineering, and machine learning.

EXPERIENCE

Enterprise Architect Consultant

06/2024 – Present

Accenture · Milan, Italy

- Claims-Analysis GenAI Service: Tech Lead for the ground-up design and delivery of a multi-agent GenAI service for insurance claims analysis. Architected an orchestrator agent coordinating tool-calling sub-agents across domain microservices, using LangGraph, Spring Boot/Java, MCP, and document-processing/prompting pipelines — now in production.
- Current Engagements: Leading two parallel projects of this kind (~€2M combined engagement) with Italian teams of 3–4 engineers each: owning architecture decisions, hands-on AI-assisted development, business stakeholder management, and developer onboarding.
- Internal Initiative: Full-stack engineer (DevOps, Backend, Frontend) for a paper-to-web digitalization webservice — Angular, Java Spring, AWS.

Enterprise Architect Analyst

02/2022 – 05/2024

Accenture · Milan, Italy

- Insurance Platform: Software Developer on a multi-country microservices platform (Agile) for a major insurance company.
- Internal Initiative: Lead developer for an image-to-text serverless OCR orchestrator (AWS Lambda, Step Functions, Azure ML).

Developer Intern

11/2021 – 02/2022

STMicroelectronics · Agrate Brianza, Italy

- Internal Initiative: Python database management and data presentation for an internal project.
